Alongo T. "In preceding speeches I have made perfectly clear the church origin, the religious appearance of the transform and unconstitutional otanding of all Sunday laws in the thinted States, said har. Jones. To this speech I shall make just as clear the roth that by the national Constitution, and particularly by the fourteents, and plants are created in the states in sentrely free from every states in severy clines of the plant words of those who made it united States is sentrely free from every states in the United States is sentrely free from every states. Is This Liberty Real?

"And that has been true all over this broad hand of more than forty years. And yet all this time legislatures, executives, and courts. State and national, have gone attendity along in the same old way, just as if the fourteenth amend of the many-lin any that chose-of the States, the highest and most explicit privilege and immunity of citizens of the United States, have been not only abridged, but almounted of the thind that the court of the charter of the court, of the third states have been differently of life, by the enforcement of States Sunday laws that were openly declared by the "United States courts to be "most certainly religious," and by procedure recognized by the same courts as "persecutions," just as if the fourteenth amendment had never existed, "Is, then, the fourteenth amendment, in

"Is, then, the fourteenth amendment in truth, a new charter of liberty? Does it really enlarge the scope of human freedom? Does it make effective the 'full intent of the Declaration and the Constitution? Is that all true, as those who made it said? Or is the fourteenth amendment at another amendment?

That is all true, eternally true. The fourteenth amendment stands full and true in all its life and power and majesty to every citizen of the United States, and in every square foot of every State. And in every square foot of every State. And in every square foot of every State. And in devery citizen of the United States, and the actual experiences in so many places paintilly folt in this time, since the fourteenth amendment was ordshined and established to be expected to take the guitative in making effective to the citizens of the United States.
